RANDY FORSMAN

Chapter President & Trustee
Director, KCRA 3

On behalf of the San Francisco / Northern California Chapter of NATAS, I would like to welcome everyone to our annual Gold & Silver Circle Induction; honoring inductees into the Class of 2020. Tonight we celebrate the accomplishments of ten unique individuals who have distinguished themselves within the industry and their community. The obvious change you'll notice about this year's induction is that it is entirely virtual. COVID-19 has affected so many facets of our industry and The Gold & Silver Circle is no exception. Despite the change, we hope you will enjoy hearing the wonderful anecdotes of our inductees all from the comfort of your own home. In addition to the Class of 2020, we're also awarding college scholarships to five well-deserving and diverse students from across the Bay Area. Tonight's event is free, and we welcome donations to support our College Scholarship Fund. Thank you for joining us tonight as we honor this year's class of inductees and we look forward to celebrating with you in-person next year for the Gold & Silver Circle Class of 2021.

WAYNE FREEDMAN

Reporter, KGO ABC 7
Trustee / Awards Chair
Silver Circle Class of 2000

Wayne Freedman has worked in San Francisco television news since 1981, first with KRON, then CBS News, and ABC7 since 1991. He began his reporting career with a weekly column in what is now the Los Angeles Daily News in 1968, at 14 years old. He's a Silver Circle Member, a 52-time Emmy® Awards recipient, a Trustee with the National Academy, a long-time governor for the Northern California Chapter, and is in his 5th year of service as our Awards Chair. Freedman is a 2nd generation television person. His father, Mike, began with ABC in 1948. There, he invented and pioneered the use of live, hand-held video cameras for news and sports, and received several national Emmy® Awards for camera work and directing. Wayne's book, It Takes More Than Good Looks to Succeed at Television News Reporting, Second Edition, is required reading in college and university journalism programs across the nation. Freedman lives in Marin County with his wife, Susan. His daughter, Lauren, works at Smithsonian Channel for CBS in New York City.

DON SANCHEZ

Retired Anchor/Reporter, KGO ABC 7
Alternate Trustee / Cinema Club Chair
Silver Circle Class of 2000

MASTER OF CEREMONIES

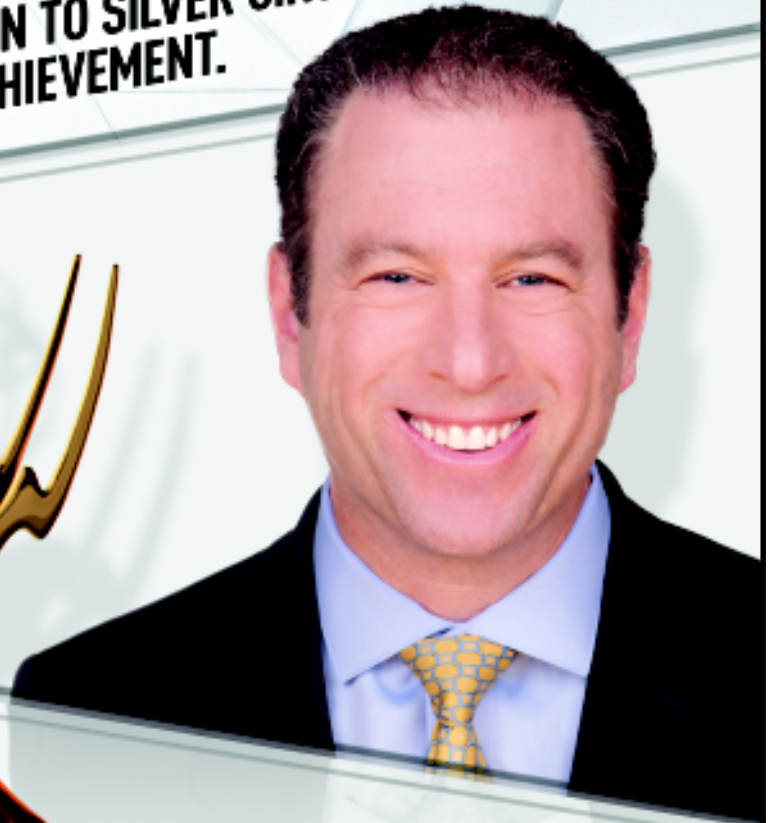

Yes, that's Don Sanchez in that picture. Same person, different looks after so many years on Bay Area TV. Gone is the mustache. He shaved it off for charity. Don is retired from broadcasting, but that doesn't diminish his love, fascination and respect for the industry. He is still serving as a member of the SAG-AFTRA board. After graduating from the University of Southern California in telecommunications, Don returned to the Central Coast to do radio and then was hired for his first TV job as a reporter at KSBY-TV in San Luis Obispo in 1963. Don's only other TV job was at KGO-TV in San Francisco. He started there in September, 1972, and spent the next 40 years and three months as a reporter, sports reporter, news anchor, talk show host ("Good Morning Bay Area" in 1989) and finally the arts and entertainment reporter for the last 12 years. Don has received five EMMY® Awards, including the prestigious Governors' award in 2013 and is a member of the NATAS Silver Circle and the Broadcast Legends. Don is proud of his 50 year career in television which is why he would be honored to be part of the Academy Board to continue assuring the quality of our industry.

FOR LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT.

NBCBAYAREA.COM

SCOTT BUDMAN

Technology Reporter, KNTV NBC Bay Area
Silver Circle Class of 2020

Emmy® Award recipient and reporter Scott Budman covers the business and technology beat for NBC Bay Area. An Oakland native, Budman joined KNTV in 1995 after working at KEYT in Santa Barbara as a reporter/weekend anchor. He began his broadcasting career in radio as a business reporter for KMNY in Anaheim. Budman anchored various NBC Bay Area newscasts while also doing general assignment reporting. Co-Creator/Host/Writer of Tech Now, Budman is one of the Bay Area's most recognizable business and technology journalists. He can be heard on NPR, Alice Radio and is regularly blogs for Forbes and other online publications. Budman volunteers with community organizations including Big Brothers Big Sisters of Santa Clara and Home of Hope, an agency that helps children in India and here in the U.S. transition out of poverty and into employment.

CONGRATULATIONS JOANNE

Joanne's two Emmy® Awards were for her work on the “Golden State Killers” and the Midday Newscast.

Joanne is not only ridiculously competent but a truly good person. At an early age she loved television & personifies the Girl Scout creed to be kind in thought, word and deed.

She keeps in touch with past employees and nurtures friendships. I'm proud to call her my friend.

Joanne is, in reality, ABC7's Wizard of Oz, controlling the station from behind the green screen.

Congratulations Joanne, you deserve to be in the spotlight for once.

Welcome to the Silver Circle.

JOANNE JUNG WOHLERS

Satellite Coordinator, KGO ABC 7

Silver Circle Class of 2020

Without Joanne Jung Wohlers, the station could have gone dark. She's been considered the behind the scenes force running ABC 7 for 40-years now. Wohlers is Satellite Coordinator at KGO 7 – and so much more. She's called by employees an amazing combination of historian, archive clerk, digital technician and detective. The mantra at KGO only grows stronger as young and old alike search for file footage or institutional knowledge. The answer often is the same, "I can't find it. Go ask Joanne." She's humble, self-effacing and considered the social glue that holds the Channel 7 newsroom together. The Emmy® Award recipient is able to juggle tight deadlines and somehow miraculously makes them work. And she does so with a rare wit and sense of good humor.

CONGRATULATIONS KEN DAY

Silver Circle 2020

“Coming together is a beginning,
Staying together is a process
And working together is success.” – Henry Ford

Ken Day’s camera lens captures the essence of a story, often showcasing the single most memorable moment of a piece or program. Guided by his eye and heart, Ken searches for powerful and emotional sequences. We’ve traveled the world as photographer and producer, pounding the pavement to make deadlines, often working extremely hard. We’ve laughed to overcome elusive fits of boredom and unpredictable situations. Ken and I have developed a television friendship that began in the 1990s and has lasted through hundreds of documentaries and news stories.

Ken – working together is – SUCCESS!

KEN DAY

Photographer, Ken Day Productions
Silver Circle Class of 2020

As a high school sophomore in 1970, Ken Day knew what he wanted to do with his life. He bought a camera and set out to learn photography. From sunrise to sunset, he would explore his world, photographing everything from nature to sports to the homeless. After graduation from Sacramento State University in the late 1970s, Day landed a job at Sacramento PBS station KVIE. Two years later, he was hired by an NBC affiliate in Boise, Idaho. Then, it was back to Sacramento and CBS station KQVR where he stayed 15 years working daily news. Day covered everything from earthquakes to Presidential visits and special assignments in Israel and Mexico. Day has several Emmy® Awards for his photography. He left KQVR in 1997 and started his own business. He's since covered the O.J. Simpson trial, Unabomber trial along with many features for ABC Network News. He also works on numerous documentary projects and always goes the extra mile to do an excellent job. Day is first in line to offer help to nonprofits and community activists.

MOLLY McCREA

Medical & Special Projects Producer
Silver Circle Class of 2020

For nearly 35 years, Molly McCrea has dedicated her life to KPIX News. She began as an intern on the assignment desk and then worked her way through the station as a production assistant, weather producer, field producer, feature producer, special projects producer, political producer, medical/health producer and now as an MMJ. She has received numerous awards and recognition for her news segments and documentaries from a variety of organizations. They include APTRA, National UPI, Peninsula Press Club, and Society of professional Journalists. She's also earned several Emmy® Awards. McCrea previously worked at CNN and Associated Press and produced for the CBS nationally syndicated program Day & Date. McCrea graduated from UC Berkeley with a BA Degree and completed work for her Master's Degree at SF State in Broadcast Communication Arts.

LONNIE WONG

Reporter, KTXL FOX 40
Silver Circle Class of 2020

Sacramento FOX 40 Anchor/Reporter Lonnie Wong reports from the trenches, having covered news for nearly four decades now. He started at Channel 40 before there was a FOX TV Network, when the primary programming at his station was old movies and MASH reruns. Wong witnessed the evolution of a single daily newscast into a sophisticated TV news operation. He helped found the Sacramento Chapter of the Asian American Journalists Association (AAJA) and has served on the chapter board continuously since 1985. Wong was awarded a Lifetime Achievement Award from the National AAJA organization. He's also been recognize by the California State Assembly and State Senate for journalistic achievement and support of Asian Pacific Islander communities. Wong started his career in radio at KPFA covering state politics and began working with TV news film crews. He has covered the administrations of seven governors beginning with Ronald Reagan.

Silver Circle Class of 2020

Jennifer Olney is an award-winning journalist and storyteller at ABC 7. She started at the station in 1982 as a writer and newscast producer. Later, she moved into on-air reporting and became a special projects producer. Olney has written and produced numerous long-format specials for television and digital on a variety of topics from scientific exploration to criminal investigations. Her goal is to develop relevant content to help viewers better understand the dynamics of critical issues. Olney extensively reports on the environment and conducted multi-year investigations into California's green waste dumping practices. Her body of work includes hundreds of stories featuring people trying to make the world a better place. For the past ten years, Olney has photographed, edited, written, and produced her own segments. She is the recipient of nine Emmy® Awards and was part of the KGO team that won a Peabody Award for coverage of the Loma Prieta earthquake. Before heading to the Bay Area, Olney worked at KTLA TV and KFWB Radio in southern California. She's a longtime Girl Scout volunteer and has a degree in American Studies and Communications from Stanford University.

Sal Castaneda started at KTVU in 1991 and is known for features about local heroes. He began his career volunteering at the UC Berkeley campus radio station while attending college there. He went on to work in radio before being hired at KTVU. While traffic and feature stories are his primary focus, Castaneda also has covered breaking news including some stories like the 1989 Loma Prieta Earthquake and the 1991 Oakland Hills fire storm. He readily mentors journalism students and volunteers with the Salvation Army and Leukemia Lymphoma Society. Castaneda received an Emmy® Award in 2014 for coverage of the Napa earthquake.

Sports Anchor/Reporter, KPIX 5
Silver Circle Class of 2020

Vern Glenn joined KPIX/KBCWTV 44 Cable 12 in June of 2012 as a weekend sports anchor/weekday sports reporter and MMJ. Glenn is a three-time Emmy® Award recipient who before KPIX had worked at KRON 4 News since 1990. While at KRON, he was tagged with the nickname “Mr. Involvement” for literally throwing himself into the middle of his feature stories. Memorable moments include bungee jumping, sky diving, bull riding, boxing, pro football and a dirt bike crash. “Mr. Involvement” has created a niche in the television market. Glenn brings that same type of energy to KPIX. Among his memorable personal assignments was reporting from the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia. Glenn was part of the KNBR Radio Morning Show in 1998 and drops in now and then as a guest on 95.7 The Game. Before coming to the Bay Area, Glenn worked at WBAL-TV in Baltimore Maryland as weekend sports anchor.

MICHEL CAMUS

Technical Operations Manager, KGO ABC 7
Gold Circle Class of 2020

Michel Camus has been involved in northern California television news as a photographer and technical manager for 51 years. Camus began at KOVR in 1969 before going to KPIX in 1973. He left KPIX in 1975, moving to KGO, where he has been ever since. Camus has earned three Emmy® awards for photography and four awards from the San Francisco Press Photographers Association, including “Cameraman of the Year” in 1976. Camus has covered: the Reagan inauguration, Angela Davis, Indian Alcatraz take over, anti Vietnam war demonstrations at Berkeley, the student strike at San Francisco State University, the Zodiac killer, Pope John Paul, Patti Hearst. He flew in the first helicopter to spray malathion during the medfly crisis. He has shot in Africa, Mexico, Central America and covered the 1984 Olympics in Yugoslavia. As a photographer, Camus was in charge of the first camera crew to go live from a moving bus and from a boat in the early ‘80s. He became Technical Manager at KGO 33 years ago and has been very innovative in adopting technology, designing remote vehicles and assuring his field crews had the best equipment in the San Francisco market. He introduced microwave digital technology (digital microwave and HD remote camera) for his crews to do live remotes.

DON R SHARP

Operations Director, Retired, KPIX 5, KRON 4

Gold Circle Class of 2020

Silver Circle Class of 2005

For more than 50 years, Don Sharp has been an innovator and respected newsroom leader. He held key news management roles at two network-owned television stations in San Francisco. His broadcast career began in San Diego in 1967 where he was one of the first African Americans employed by KOHO-TV, a Time-Life station. Sharp was hired as a film processor and soon promoted to news and sports photographer. In 1969, KRON-TV in San Francisco recruited him as News Film Supervisor. He stayed at the station 36 years. During his tenure at KRON, Sharp was promoted to News Operations Manager and Associate News Director. While at the station, Sharp designed and installed the first bridge traffic cameras on the Golden Gate, Bay and San Mateo Bridges, and led KRON's transition from film to digital editing. He also launched the first live helicopter in San Francisco. In 2005, Sharp was hired by CBS-owned station KPIX where he became a central newsroom leader responsible for technical operations. He helped produce coverage of the Bay Bridge's new eastern span and oversaw unprecedented use of drone video in news. Sharp co-authored a book in 1985 entitled Microwaves Made Simple. It became a teaching textbook at Stanford University. Sharp is the recipient of six Emmy® Awards. In 2018, he was honored with the NATAS Governors' Citation and inducted into Silver Circle in 2005. He also received the APTRA Broadcast Hall of Fame Award in 2009.
