BROOKS JAROSZ

President, NATAS SF/NorCal Chapter

Senior Communications Officer, Office of the Sheriff, Santa Clara County

Today is a momentous occasion as we gather to honor the extraordinary achievements of seven remarkable professionals who have made a lasting impact on television broadcasting. These inductees have not only shaped the industry, but also served their communities with dedication, passion, and excellence for many years.

We are thrilled to recognize this year's Silver Circle inductees, each with more than 25 years of distinguished service in television. They include John Breedlove of KCRA 3, Kristine Hanson of KCRA

3, Jim Huntington of ABC7 KGO, Mike Krukow of NBC Sports Bay Area, Duane Kuiper of NBC Sports Bay Area, Mike Lowry of J Comm Inc., and Lisa White of CBS Bay Area KPIX.

Additionally, we are also proud to announce the unprecedented gift of $25,000 in collegiate scholarships. This year, seven exceptional students from the Bay Area and Northern California were selected. They include Ehret Fieldhouse of Laney College, Shadeed Wallace-Stepter of San Francisco State University, Pamela Andrea Martinez-Barrera, Ethan Wu, and Shade Janelle Olisea of Stanford University, Zane Karram of University of California, Berkeley, and Madison Wilber of San Jose State University. These students' achievements and potential are truly inspiring, and we look forward to watching their continued success.

Today is not only a celebration of the incredible professionals who have shaped our industry over decades, but also a moment to look forward to the next generation of television professionals who will build on their legacy.

On behalf of the Board of Governors, we hope you enjoy the afternoon as we honor some of the best and brightest in our region.

SCHOLARSHIPS
2024

The TV Academy Fund, Inc. is a 501(c)(3) charity that provides funds for our collegiate scholarships. The scholarships are named in honor of individuals who have impacted our industry. NATAS members support these scholarships with their donations as well as proceeds from this luncheon.

PATTY ZUBOV

Executive Producer, Platonic TV

NATAS Membership Chair, Governors' Service Medallion 2014

Patty Zubov has served on the NATAS SF/NorCal Board of Governors since 2012, first as Marketing Chair and now as Membership Chair. She expanded Member Benefits by bringing back the Mentor Match program, establishing a Diversity Committee, and arranging for invaluable networking events like NATAS Regional Mixers. She is a judge for both English and Spanish Emmy® Award entries.

Since 2001, Patty has headed her production company Platonic TV, based in San Francisco, producing short-format news reports and long-format documentaries and specials for ABC, NBC, CBS, Fox, PBS, Discovery, and Travel Channel. Specializing in travel and tourism, she has been nominated for two Emmy® Awards.

Patty was Field Producer and Segment Producer for ten years with Preview Media / News Travel Network, creating travel news segments syndicated daily during nationwide newscasts.

She began her television career as a Management Trainee at KPIX with the live daily talk show “People Are Talking” – then continued to work as Associate Producer of “Yan Can Cook” at KQED. Patty worked freelance in New York City from 1985 to 1990.

Silver Circle Class of 2010 NATAS Governor

Feeling the friendship, professionalism, and love in this room, you know it's the right time – right place. Congratulations to our 2024 Inductees into the revered Silver Circle Class of 2024. And welcome to your family and friends joining us this afternoon.

No question, the Circles represent long, hard work and commitment to broadcasting. But in addition to the 25+ years spent in the industry, inductees also must have given back to the community, co-workers, or students. In other words, inductees have made a difference.

The Silver Circle began in 1986 and has grown to 304 members. The Gold Circle started in 2002 and now has 29 members. However, there is no new addition this year.

Each honoree has been selected for their commitment to excellence—whether through their unique talent, distinctive style, or passion for their craft. This ceremony is a tribute to their lifetime of service and their lasting influence on the broadcasting and television world. Let's raise a glass to the exceptional Class of 2024.

Enjoy the afternoon. This is history in the making. The commitment from inductees will forever be recorded and recognized.

Thank you all for being here.

EDIE LAMBERT

Anchor , KCRA 3

Silver Circle Class of 2018

Edie Lambert anchors the 6pm, 7pm and 11 PM newscasts on KCRA 3 in Sacramento. Lambert has also covered hundreds of stories in the Sacramento region. Highlights of her career include two interviews with President Barack Obama, one of which aired on NBC Nightly News, and covering the Scott Peterson trial gavel-to-gavel for KCRA and MSNBC's The Abrams Report. Lambert started in television as an intern at Santa Barbara's KEYT-TV. She felt incredibly fortunate to be hired in that newsroom full time just after graduating from the University of California, Santa Barbara with a degree in political science. Lambert continues to focus on political coverage as an anchor and reporter at KCRA-TV. Her work has been recognized with five Emmy® Awards and numerous nominations. Growing up, Lambert lived around the world, traveling with her marine biologist parents. She has been a passionate advocate for a variety of social causes including breast cancer research and awareness, lung health, and domestic violence. Lambert is currently spearheading a literacy program within the Sacramento City Unified School District, providing one-on-one intervention for elementary school children who are reading well below grade level in the 4th, 5th and 6th grades.

JOHN BREEDLOVE
KCRA 3 PHOTOGRAPHER

CONGRATULATIONS

from your KCRA 3 family on your Silver Circle Induction.

A go-to photographer and reporter favorite. John has a sharp eye for great visuals from the ground and Live Copter 3. He is always eager to share tips and tricks with his colleagues.

JOHN BREEDLOVE

Photographer, KCRA 3

Silver Circle Class of 2024

Photojournalist John Breedlove has been making television for 43 years. He works for Hearst Television at KCRA Channel 3 in Sacramento. Starting at the station in 1998, he's qualified to operate SNG/ENG trucks. He also holds a private pilot certificate with an instrument rating for single-engine aircraft and is an FAA-licensed drone operator. Before KCRA, Breedlove worked as a photojournalist for CBS 13. He started as a news photographer at KMPH in 1980 and hasn't stopped since. Breedlove is known as an all-around nice guy. He's the first to reach out and help someone in need and support or mentor other photographers at KCRA. He has a Bachelor of Science degree from San Diego State University.

former Sportscaster/Reporter, KCRA

Silver Circle Class of 2024

Decades. That's how long Kristine Hanson has been working in TV in our region. She started her career at Sacramento station KCRA Channel 3 doing weather. She eventually attained a meteorology degree from San Francisco State University. She also holds degrees from Sacramento State University in Communication Studies and Theatre Arts. After presenting weather at the NBC Affiliate in Sacramento for many years, Hanson became a sportscaster at the station. She left KCRA in the late 1980s and went on to deliver weather at various other stations, including KTVU, KGO, and KRON. She is a master gardener and hosted the series "The Dirt on Gardening" for the DIY Network.

JIM HUNTINGTON

Assignment Manager, ABC7 KGO

Silver Circle Class of 2024

The heart and pulse of the newsroom is the assignment desk. And that's where James Huntington hangs his hat daily at San Francisco station KGO ABC 7, where he's been since 2003. Huntington works as Assignment Manager, overseeing breaking news, daily assignments, and dispatching crews. Prior to the 20 years he's been at KGO, in 2002, Huntington was a news producer in Los Angeles at KCAL-TV/KCBS-TV. Before that, he served as managing editor at KNBC-TV. Huntington also produced newscasts at KABC. His TV background has breadth and depth. He's been working in the industry since 1977, starting at KBFW Radio in Bellingham, Washington, where he was a reporter, anchor, and news director. Huntington uses his knowledge to help others, often mentoring individuals to help them move onward and upward. Co-workers consider him a very special individual as he directs crews and oversees the newsroom assignments.

MIKE KRUKOW

Broadcast Announcer/Analyst, NBC Sports Bay Area
San Francisco Giants

Silver Circle Class of 2024

Mike Krukow enters his 30th season in the television booth, analyzing and providing colorful stories and content as a sports-caster for NBC Sports Bay Area. Nicknamed “Kruk,” he was a professional baseball player before beginning his broadcasting career. As a starting pitcher, he played in Major League Baseball (MLB) for the Chicago Cubs, Philadelphia Phillies, and San Francisco Giants, and was hailed as an All-Star in 1986. In 1990, Krukow became a television and radio broadcaster for the Giants. He’s the other half of the popular “Kruk and Kuip” duo, with his dear friend and former teammate, Duane Kuiper.

DUANE KUIPER

Broadcast Announcer/Play by Play, NBC Sports Bay Area
San Francisco Giants

Silver Circle Class of 2024

The other half of the dynamic duo “Kruk and Kuip,” Duane Kuiper bonded with Mike Krukow while teammates playing for the San Francisco Giants back in the early 1980s. They’ve been sitting side-by-side in the booth calling baseball together for decades now. As a former professional baseball player, Kuiper got the nickname “Kuip,” which has stuck. He began television and radio broadcasting for the Giants in 1986 while still a player, hosting his own radio show on KNBR. Kuiper is known for using a deep voice when a player swings and misses, when a dramatic play is made, and when he calls home runs. It is distinctive. When the game is over, Kuiper says, “And that’s the ball game!”

MIKE LOWRY

Photographer, JComm Inc./CBS13 KOVR
Silver Circle Class of 2024

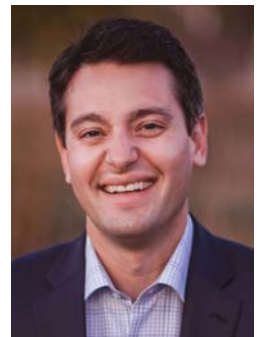

He strives for perfection, and it shows. Mike Lowry is a 10-time Emmy® Award recipient who worked for CBS 13 in Sacramento for more than 30 years. He left KOVR13 in 2019 and began working for JComm Inc. as a photographer. Lowry is comfortable in the field and has covered U.S. Presidents, Super Bowls, celebrities, gang members, and everyday people. He loves news but thoroughly enjoys his new job photographing and editing long-form programming. Around the newsroom at Channel 13, Lowry possessed a fine sense of humor and was always willing to jump in and help another photographer or staff member when needed. His editing skills are top-notch. While he's always a team member, he's also an excellent solo storyteller. He tackles the interview or story in front of him with gusto. As he quotes on his LinkedIn page, "Replace the Fear of the Unknown with Curiosity." That's who Lowry is.

LISA WHITE

Vice President/News Director, CBS Bay Area KPIX
Silver Circle Class of 2024

Lisa White prides herself on managing a newsroom where people love to work. She was named Vice President of News at CBS Bay Area KPIX in 2022, having been assistant news director for more than two decades. Prior to joining KPIX in 2000, White spent 10 years with KRON San Francisco, where she was a news producer, then promoted to managing editor and ultimately news director. She also spent six years as a producer at KING TV in Seattle. White is a graduate of Vassar College. As news director, she hopes to build on the station's legacy in news and community service.
