GOLD CIRCLE, CLASS OF 2025

Steve Swatt, Former Reporter/Political Analyst,
KCRA 3, Sacramento
Pamela Young, Host/Producer, KHON 2 Hawaii

Welcome to a truly momentous occasion as we come together to celebrate the legacy, leadership, and lasting contributions of 11 outstanding professionals in television broadcasting. Today's Gold & Silver Circle Induction Ceremony is a tribute to those who have not only shaped the industry but have also served their communities with passion, integrity, and excellence.

Please join me in congratulating Scott Arthur of ABC7, Larry Beil of ABC7, Randy Forsman of KCRA 3, Jody Hernandez of NBC Bay Area, Justin Kanno of KHON 2, Kurtis Ming of KCRA 3, Terri Russell of KOLO 8, Tracey Watkowski Silva of ABC7, and Dale Yurong of ABC 30, each with more than 25 years of distinguished service in television.

We also celebrate two esteemed members of the Silver Circle being inducted into the prestigious Gold Circle, recognizing more than 50 years of exceptional contributions to our field: Steve Swatt, formerly of KCRA 3, and Pamela Young of KHON 2.

In addition to honoring these industry icons, we are thrilled to spotlight the future of television and digital media. This year, our chapter is awarding an unprecedented $33,000 in collegiate scholarships to nine outstanding students from across the region: Teaghan Brostrom, Syracuse University; Lacy Green, UC Berkeley; Kye Kukahiko, University of Hawai'i at Mānoa; Kelly Liu, UC Berkeley; Alana Minkler, UC Berkeley; Canyon Mizera, Sacramento State; Angela Nguyen, San Jose State; Terry Shieh, Laney College; and Lili Thorson, San Francisco State University. We look forward to watching their journeys unfold!

Today is not only a celebration of those who have built and elevated our industry – it is also a moment to look ahead, as we invest in and uplift the next generation of professionals.

On behalf of the Board of Governors of the San Francisco Northern California Chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences, thank you for joining us. We hope you enjoy this afternoon of recognition, reflection, and inspiration!

Brooks Jarosz, President
Senior Communications Officer,
Santa Clara County Office of the Sheriff

Feeling the friendship, professionalism, and love in this room, you know it's the right time, right place.

Congratulations to our inductees into the revered Gold & Silver Circles, Class of 2025. And welcome to your family and friends joining us this afternoon.

No question, the Circles represent long, hard work and commitment to broadcasting. But in addition to the 25+ years spent in the industry, inductees also must have given back to the community, co-workers, or students. In other words, inductees have made a difference.

The Silver Circle began in 1986 and has grown to 313 members. The Gold Circle started in 2002 and now has 31 members.

Each honoree has been selected for their commitment to excellence—whether through their unique talent, distinctive style, or passion for their craft. This ceremony is a tribute to their lifetime of service along with their lasting influence on the broadcasting and television world. Let's raise a glass to the exceptional Class of 2025. The commitment from inductees will forever be recorded and recognized.

Enjoy the afternoon. This is history in the making.

Thank you all for being here!

MASTER OF CEREMONIES

David Louie

Reporter, ABC7 Bay Area
(Retired)

Silver Circle Class of 1995

Gold Circle Class of 2019

With great honor, we welcome David Louie to host our annual luncheon event.

David logged more than 50 years at ABC7 News Bay Area, retiring from the station in 2022 as the longest tenured and first Asian American reporter. News has been in his blood since he wrote for his high school newspaper. He loves technology and was thrilled to cover Silicon Valley and the innovators who keep creating new products and services.

David has received four regional Emmy® Awards. In 2015, he was presented with the Governors' Award, the highest honor a chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences (NATAS) can bestow. He served many years as a Governor and Awards Chair for the San Francisco Northern California Chapter.

David's mark on TV reaches far outside the Bay Area having served at the Academy's highest level, elected national chairman (1994-96) and vice-chairman (1990-94). He's also been national president of the Asian American Journalists Association and a long-time board member of the Radio Television Digital News Association where he has endowed a scholarship for AAPI students at Northwestern University's Medill School of Journalism.

Jodi Hernandez

Reporter
NBC Bay Area

She's a reporter who knows her craft! Jodi Hernandez joined KNTV as a general assignment reporter in 2002, working primarily on the station's 5, 6 & 11pm weekday newscasts.

No question, she's a veteran. Jodi started her career in 1992 at KCPM in Chico, then moved east to Wichita, Kansas to work at KAKE-TV. Two years later, she was back in Northern California at KOVR TV. Then, it was on to NBC Bay Area.

Jodi has received numerous awards including a regional Emmy®, an RTNDA award, the NLGJA Seigenthaler Video Media Award and the duPont/Columbia award.

Jodi was also inducted into the National Association of Hispanic Journalists' Hall of Fame in 2017.

Kurtis Ming Anchor KCRA3 Sacramento

With nearly 30 years in the business, Kurtis Ming remains committed to broadcast journalism and knows it can make a big difference in his community.

Kurtis now anchors weekdays at KCRA 3. Prior to landing at KCRA, he received 11 Emmy® Awards for his dedication to the community, resolving consumer issues.

Before Channel 3, Kurtis worked as an investigative reporter at CBS 13. His KOVR franchise, “Call Kurtis,” oversaw a team of dedicated volunteers helping consumers, researching multitudes of unfair practices and ultimately returning millions of dollars to consumers.

CONGRATULATIONS

FROM YOUR KCRA 3 FAMILY ON YOUR INDUCTION.

STEVE SWATT

Anyone who has covered California politics since the late 1960s is familiar with Steve's prodigious work. His vast knowledge continues to inform Northern California voters and add critical historical context for viewers.

KURTIS MING

Countless Californians have called Kurtis over the years as he dedicated decades to being a voice for the voiceless to solve consumer problems. His passion to serve our community is on display every day at KCRA 3.

RANDY FORSMAN

A passionate director and a dedicated volunteer in the industry, Randy has contributed excellent production work at four different television stations, three within Hearst. Thanks for your 28 years of service to viewers.

CELEBRATING
LARRY BEIL
TRACEY WATKOWSKI
and all the Gold & Silver Circle inductees

CONGRATULATIONS
& THANK YOU!
FROM YOUR CIRCLE  COLLEAGUES

Scott Arthur
Photographer
ABC7 News Bay Area

Longtime ABC7 News Bay Area Photographer Scott Arthur is being honored for dedication to his craft and community.

Since 1996, Scott has primarily operated out of the ABC7 South Bay Bureau. Prior to joining KGO, Scott was a photographer for several years at NBC Bay Area.

All of Scott's colleagues can attest to his formidable talent, creativity, and collaborative spirit even under the pressure of daily deadlines.

During his 43 years in the business, Arthur is the field photographer every reporter wants to work with, and he's the one all the other field crews respect!

Larry Beil

Anchor / Sports Reporter
ABC7 News Bay Area

A very familiar face on KGO-TV, Larry Beil co-anchors the station's 4pm News and covers all things sports for the 6/11pm shows, along with hosting ABC7's After the Game.

He joined ABC7 News Bay Area in 2001 after six years hosting "SportsCenter" on ESPN. Before that, Larry was a sports reporter and anchor at KTVU in Oakland.

Larry began his journalism career at the University of Hawaii, working on the student newspaper and campus radio station.

He left national television to return to local television for the lifestyle. And he loves living in the Bay Area!

Larry says that when he's not working, he's still watching sports – or working out.

Terri Russell
Lead Reporter
KOLO 8 Reno

A native of Reno, Nevada, Terri Russell is an Emmy® Award-winning reporter. Good for her career and excellent for viewers, Terri has an advantage reporting breaking news in her market.

She's called Reno "home" all of her life. She's not only very familiar with the landscape, politics and social issues, but also loves living there.

Terri began her television adventure as an associate director. She rose through the ranks to producer. From there, she launched a long and successful reporting career.

Terri also serves on the Board of Governors for the San Francisco Northern California Chapter of NATAS.

Justin Kanno News Photographer KHON 2 Hawaii

Justin Kanno is considered an exceptional news photographer who goes the distance. He's been in the field more than three decades.

The Shelly Fay Scholarship from the San Francisco Northern California Chapter of NATAS helped launch Justin's career as he studied videography at California State University, East Bay. At the same time, Kanno was freelancing at KRON4.

After graduation, he landed a job at KOLO 8 in Reno, eventually getting promoted to Chief Photographer. Justin later joined KHON 2 in Hawaii where he's worked for almost 20 years.

Now, Justin's coming full circle from scholarship award recipient to Silver Circle inductee!

DALE YURONG

Congratulations!

from everyone at Action News

Silver Circle Honoree

Dale Yurong
Anchor/Reporter
ABC30 Central California

Dale Yurong is a storyteller committed to educating viewers about agriculture, the number one industry in the Central Valley.

The Stockton native has been on the air for more than four decades and has been recognized with two regional Emmy® Awards. Dale's also received the honor of being named "Reporter of the Year" by the Associated Press.

Dale enthusiastically covers stories making a difference in his community, the country, and the world. His focus: agriculture in a state where harvesting food plays a key role in promoting California as one of the largest economies in the world.

In addition, Dale's "Dine and Dish" food series is a half-hour program seen coast to coast.

Randy Forsman Director KCRA 3 Sacramento

Randy Forsman is a dedicated volunteer to the television industry, having served as the president, trustee, and secretary of the San Francisco Northern California Chapter of NATAS. He's been a member of the board since 2015.

As the senior newscast director at KCRA 3, Randy calls daily live newscasts along with a variety of special programs including political debates seen in markets across California.

From his early beginnings as a high school intern at KCOY in 1997, Randy has been working in the business for nearly 30 years and considers it a privilege to create impactful, meaningful broadcasts.

Randy continually challenges himself and seeks to inspire excellence among the directing community, and give back to the industry that has shaped his life.

Tracey Watkowski Silva

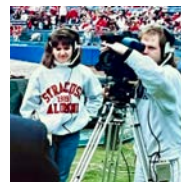

Vice-President, News
ABC7 News Bay Area

Tracey Watkowski-Silva is a true news professional with 25+ years of management experience and a strong background in newscast production.

Tracey has served as Vice-President of News at ABC7 since 2012, her second stint at the station after serving as KGO's Assistant News Director from 1999-2006. In between, Tracey was the News Director at KFSN in Fresno.

Tracey ended up in the City by the Bay by way of TV jobs in Cincinnati and Philadelphia, plus her journalism degree from Syracuse University.

Tracey says the San Francisco Bay Area is an amazing place to live with countless stories to tell. She especially loves when her news team breaks a big story and excels with coverage of a major event!

Steve Swatt

Former Reporter/Political Analyst
KCRA 3 Sacramento
Silver Circle, Class of 2016

Steve Swatt is an award-winning political broadcast journalist who launched his TV career at KCRA in 1969 after reporting stints at the SF Examiner and United Press Int'l in Los Angeles. 55 years later, he continues to provide political analysis for several media outlets in the Sacramento market.

During his career as a reporter and political correspondent, Steve extensively covered public policy, elections, and numerous presidents/governors. With an MA Degree in Journalism from UC Berkeley, Steve has taught and mentored many graduate students.

He remains actively involved with the California Conservation Corps Foundation and Friends of California Archives boards, and he has served on the Alliance for Better Campaigns board and Community Learning Advisory Board.

Steve authored numerous books including Game Changers: Twelve Elections That Transformed California.

He has received an Emmy Award for his work, along with awards from National Health Journalism, State Bar, and SPJ, Association of American Political Consultants and Sacramento Public Relations Society.

Pamela Young

Host / Producer
KHON 2 Hawaii

Silver Circle, Class of 2004

Being a woman breaking into TV news in 1974, there have been many firsts for Pamela Young.

Working at KPIX on the show called All Together Now with the legendary Belva Davis (Silver Circle 1989), Pamela became the first Asian-American reporter to work on that program.

Born and raised in Hawaii, Pamela came to the mainland to attend San Francisco State University, graduating in 1973. Most newsrooms were packed with men back then, but that didn't stop Pamela. She stayed at KPIX for a year, then moved over to PBS station KQED. Eventually, she returned home to Hawaii, taking a job as an anchor/reporter for KHON. She's received 12 Emmy® Awards.

In 1984, Pamela launched a show in Hawaii called Mixed Plate that's still on the air today. It covers a little bit of everything. "Something Japanese, Chinese, Filipino." Pamela has written a travel column and a book entitled My Name Is Makia Malo about an 80-year-old person living with leprosy.

Pamela received the prestigious NATAS Governors' Award in 2024. She also chairs the San Francisco Northern California Chapter's Awards Committee, and mentors young people entering the TV business. At this point, there's no plan to retire.

She's a true pioneer!
